Day Camp

The Alfred University Equestrian Day Camp, June 29-July 2, is open to riders of all levels, aged 8-12. The camp will run 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday. English and western instruction will be offered.

Each camper will be assigned a horse to ride during the week and will also be involved with the hands-on care for that horse. Campers will have two sessions of riding each day. When campers are not involved in riding they will be busy with arts and crafts projects and other recreational activities as well as learning stable management skills. A horse show will be held at the end of the day on Thursday so campers can demonstrate for their parents the skills they learned during the week.

Each camper will be responsible for bringing his/her own lunch. Refreshments and snacks will be provided. A kitchen area is available for use. Campers may bring their own horses if desired. Day Camp Cost: $300.

Enrollment deadline: June 15, 2015.

Day Camp Cancellations: Full refunds will be made for day camper cancellations received by June 19. Sorry, no refunds can be issued after that date.

Alfred University equestrian camps offer a wonderful opportunity for all levels of riders from beginners through advanced to define and achieve their personal riding goals during an exciting, fun-filled week. Campers can bring their own horses or use AU’s great lesson horses during their week of camp. They’ll ride and care for their horse throughout the week as they refine their skills. All camps are held at AU’s Bromeley-Daggett Equestrian Center. This spacious equestrian center includes classrooms, viewing areas, a 200 x 80-foot indoor arena, 50 stalls and two outdoor arenas: 200 x 100 and 80 x 100.

Residential English Camp
The Residential English Camp, a week-long overnight camp for boys and girls aged 14-17, accommodates hunt seat riding based on the gifts and needs of the participants. Campers have lots of fun, refine their skills and have plenty of time to get to know the horses and each other! We work with campers individually to help them define realistic personal goals at the beginning of the week and their lessons are then directed toward helping them achieve those goals. Campers arrive on Sunday and leave after lunch on Friday. We have two riding sessions each day. In the evening we vary the schedule, including a trip to the County Fair, a campfire and fun at Foster Lake, more time for riding and a selection of group recreational activities.

Cost: $895 – Enrollment deadline: June 1, 2015
The camp fee covers room and board from supper on Sunday through lunch on Friday, instruction, supervision, program materials, recreational activities, T-shirt, and either the use of an AU horse or the boarding of the camper’s own horse. Participants stay in University residence halls dedicated to summer campers (2 per room) and provide their own pillows, blankets and bed/bath linens for the week (bed linens must fit the extra-long twin residence hall beds). Cafeteria-style meals are served in the campus dining hall. (We can accommodate most food allergies and special requirements if notified in advance.)

A student show is held at the end of the week to allow riders to demonstrate the skills they have learned to their parents, instructors and other AU staff.
